Write a C++ program to find and display the inorder predecessor and successor of nodes in a Threaded Binary Search Tree (TBST). Handle boundary cases where the minimum node has no predecessor and the maximum node has no successor. Display the predecessor and successor for every node in the tree and verify the results against the inorder traversal sequence.